

Law, Technology and Development Opportunities and Challenges in EU-China Relations

11 November 2014

University of Strathclyde Law School
& Fudan University Law School
Glasgow

For further information about the conference including how to register please email ltd2014-conf@strath.ac.uk

This conference is kindly supported by the University of Strathclyde, Fudan University, The Strathclyde Centre for Environmental Law and Governance and the Strathclyde Centre for Internet Law and Policy

Programme

9:30 – 10:30 Registration and Coffee

10:30 – 11:15 Chair: Dr Francesco Sindico, Director of the Strathclyde Centre for Environmental Law and Governance, University of Strathclyde Law School

Key Note

- Prof Lilian Edwards, Professor of Internet Law, University of Strathclyde Law School
“IT Law: the Middle Kingdom between East and West”

11:15 – 12:45 Chair: Professor Bryan Clark, Head of the Law School, University of Strathclyde

Moving towards a Green Economy

- Dr Janet Xuanli Liao, Lecturer, Centre for Energy, Petroleum and Mineral Law and Policy, University of Dundee
“China and EU in the battle against climate change: partners or competitors?”
- Yamei Wang, School of Economics & Centre for European Studies (Jean Monnet Centre of Excellence), Sichuan University, Chengdu
“Deepening China-EU Cooperation, Promoting China’s Green Urbanization”
- Steven Geroe, Researcher and lecturer at RMIT University, Australia
“Chinese Renewable Energy Regulation: Institutions, Innovation and Economic Development”
- Shigang Li, Assistance Professor, Law School, Fudan University, China
“Property and Usufruct of natural resources in China”

12:45 – 1:30 Lunch

1:30 – 2:45 Chair: Professor Wei Wang, Law School, Fudan University, China

Regulatory aspects of biotechnology, including medical ethics and developmental considerations

- Stephanie Switzer, Lecturer in Law, University of Strathclyde Law School
“Bird flu, research ethics and dual-use controversies”
- Benjamin Farrand, Lecturer in Law, University of Strathclyde Law School
“The Politics of Biotechnology Regulation – Perceptions of morality, trade, and EU-China relations”
- Wen Xiang, Post-doctoral Research Fellow, Faculty of Law, University of Copenhagen
“Science and Politics in Risk Regulation of GMOs: A Comparison between the EU and China”

2:45 – 3:15 Coffee Break

3:15 – 4:30 Chair: Dr Francesco Sindico, Director of the Strathclyde Centre for Environmental Law and Governance, University of Strathclyde Law School

Sustainable Development in World Trade Law: Partnership or Conflict?

- Dr Paolo Farah, West Virginia University (USA) & gLAWcal – Global Law Initiatives for Sustainable Development
“The Increase of WTO Disputes for Subsidies to Renewable Energy (including Innovation and Technology): Time for Reform toward Sustainable Development?”
- Zhongfa Ma, Professor of International Law, Law School, Fudan University, China
“Bridging the Gap between Intellectual Property Regime and Clean Technology Transfer”
- Li Chen, Professor of International Law at Law School, Fudan University, China “Balance the value of free trade and sustainable development: China’s dilemma in DS432”

4:30 – 5:00 Conclusion

Professor Mark Poustie, Vice Dean Internationalisation, Faculty of Humanities and Social Sciences, University of Strathclyde

For further information about the conference including how to register please email ltd2014-conf@strath.ac.uk

This conference is kindly supported by the University of Strathclyde, Fudan University, The Strathclyde Centre for Environmental Law and Governance and the Strathclyde Centre for Internet Law and Policy

www.strath.ac.uk
University of Strathclyde Glasgow
The University of Strathclyde is a charitable body, registered in Scotland, with registration number SC015263

THE UK Entrepreneurial University of the Year 2013/14
UK University of the Year
2012/13