

Andrea LACROCE – Research Fellow

Since June 2013, Mr. Andrea LACROCE has been a Research Fellow at University Institute of European Studies – IUSE, Turin (Italy).

He obtained his combined J.D./LL.M. from the University of Turin (Italy) with a thesis on “The Protection of Intellectual Property and Legal Remedies: the Chinese Case”. During his studies he represented the University of Turin at the International Moot Court “Habeas Corpus” at the University Jean Moulin Lyon 3 (Lyon, France). He also earned a Master in Diplomacy (Academic Year 2013-2014) at Institute for International Political Studies – ISPI in Milan (Italy), and in June 2014 he sat at the Italian Diplomatic Competition Exam.

In 2012, he attended the Summer School with focus on Intellectual Property Rights and China at Peking University School of Government in Beijing, co-organized by University of Turin Faculty of Law, University of Milan and gLAWcal – Global Law Initiatives for Sustainable Development.

From April to July 2013, he worked as an intern at gLAWcal – Global Law Initiatives for Sustainable Development (United Kingdom) and from July to December 2014 at UNICRI - United Nations Interregional Crime and Justice Research Institute in Geneva (Switzerland).

His main research areas of interest are International Trade law, Intellectual Property law and Chinese law.

Italian native speaker, he is fluent in English and French.